There have been requests that the Town Council allow the Cottesmore Hunt to use Cutts Close for their Boxing Day meeting.

This annual event was conducted for many years in Cutts Close until about 4 years ago when their request was refused.

It should be pointed out that the request is not actually from the Hunt but the public. It is also worth noting that the event attracts a large following of supporters and For Rutland Charity benefit from collections on the day.

Proposal

The Hunt are advised that their Boxing Day meet is permitted to recommence at Cutts Close, Oakham within a specific area and subject to appropriate Health, Safety and Insurance being observed unless advised otherwise.
